EXIRACT FROM A LETTER

Owl's Head, on the Great Panaliscot, July 20 Most worthy Friend, I am in ecstacies Never, until this week, have I known so much happine-a! I am so improved, so changed, so al tered exteriorly, that i have frequently to inquire my own identity. This morning, as I beheld myself in the resplendent mirror, I was forcibly reminded of the principles inculcated by the celeheated Dr. Graham, & immediately sat down and inflicted upon him a letter of nearly half a page, touching the fallibility of human philosophy I know not what he will think of me, but I have no doubt he will pay me for my kindness, bypublishing my letter in his journal with comments. But this is digression.

I wish you could be here. Such living piscatorily, especially. And then the rides, the fare, the frolic Scores of ladies and gentlemen are my companions, and joyously do we improve Treasury Bill . the "passing hour" We rise at the earliest n of day, pass two or three hours before Liffat in fishing, after which we plan a ride and as to the balance of the day, it is usuagguned, perlups, liowever, not always hiy. We looked at it as given in the Globe, and concur in the aunexed notice of it by the Alexandria Gazette.

Mr Duncan's speech, we find, on examinaton, to be one of the most low, vulgar, and abu sive articles we ever read. By This Morning's Mail.

THE WEESTER DINNER The Roston papers of Wednesday give a full account of the Wing festival given to Mr. Webster on Tuesday last There were from 1500 to 1600 persons, who moved in procession to Faneuit Hall, which was crowded in every part Gov Everett, President of the Day, alluded to the occasion of the dinner in a short and appropriate address, after which several toasts were given. Then Gov Everett addressed the guest of the day, paying bun many eloquent compliments upon his political services Mr Webster responded in an able and eloquent speech of more than an hour in duration, which was listened to with eager interest, and received with repeated and anima ted cheers... The Mayor of the city and several of the Vice Presidents were then called on for sentiments, and among the gentlemen who addressed the company were Mesers Fletcher, Reed, Lincoln and Cushing of the Massachusette delegation in Congress, Governor Ells worth, of Connecticut, and Mesers Prentiss, of Mississippi, Menifee, of Kentucky, Ketchum, of New York, Wilson, of New Hampshire, Kinsman, of Maine, Tillinghast of Rhode Island, and Briggs of Vermont

The entertainment is spoken of in the high est terms of praise, and was a hearty tribute to the character and services of the distinguished individual in whose honor it was given

SACRED MUSIC. TO THE CIPIZENS OF BANGOR

THE Government of the "Bangor Sacred Music Society," deem it expedient to acquaint you that said Society, numbering about eighty members has recently been organized under a charter grant ed them by the Legislature of last winter It is their great object to cultivate a correct taste and chaste style in singing; and believing that their society embraces the very best musical talent among you they confidently hope to give tone and uniformity to the practice of Sacred Music in this city, and make their association a source of social and moral improvement and elevation. And with these objects in view, they now present their plan of operations, and appeal to you for that countenance and support which characterizes a generous and discerning community, and without which their efforts will be fruitess and unavailing. The Society will meet for rehearsal, once a week during the waming autumn and winter, giving a public relicar saloure in four weeks, commencing on the 10th of August; and will give public Concerts as often as may be found expedient. Honorary members and noiders of season tickets being admitted both to the public Reliearsals and Concerts, single tickets for admission to public relearsals will not be sold they being given expressive for the benefit of said Monadary members and helders of season tickets The incidental expenses of the Society are neces sarily too large to be home by assessments on its inembers; and it is from admission less of honora ry members and the sale of season tickers on which they rely, principally, to delray their extenses.
